

PRESIDENT HUERTA APPEARS BEFORE NEW CONGRESS AND READS MESSAGE

General's Message to Mexican Lawmakers Is in Nature of an Admonition

STAFF WEARS SIDE ARMS

Swords in Evidence at Sides of Huerta's Staff Seem to De- note Military Administration

U. S. IS NOT REPRESENTED

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20.—President Huerta appeared before the new congress this evening and read his message. It was short and contained little more than an explanation of his motives for dissolving the old congress, most of the members of which are now in the penitentiary accused of sedition. The senate and chamber of deputies met in joint session and President Huerta went to the hall through lines of troops. The small crowd which gathered there was not demonstrative. There were no extraneous frills to the session.

It was more in the nature of a business meeting of the president and the men converted into lawmakers during the recent so-called elections. The message General Huerta bore to him, was in its essence an admonition. The incident he related to them of the dissolution of the previous congress was one by which it was intimated they might be guided in their conduct as congressmen.

Speaker's Reply Brief.
The reply of the speaker, Eduardo Tamariz was brief. Not all the congressmen were present. Twenty-seven of them failed to put in an appearance and most of these were members of the Catholic party, to which Tamariz belongs.

It had been announced that the Catholic members had held a meeting and decided not to participate in the session.

The new congress is composed of the most part of representatives of the older and more conservative element.

General Huerta was applauded only upon his arrival and departure when the members of congress and the spectators arose to their feet and added "vivas" to the hand clapping.

The plaudits and "vivas" of the congressmen and spectators were acknowledged by a series of military salutes. General Huerta was in evening clothes. In a half circle behind him on the platform sat his staff, resplendent in gold lace and full dress uniform and grouped just below the floor of the house were the members of the cabinet. The only other touch of color in the house was to be observed in the gallery reserved for the diplomats, most of whom were in uniform. The only country not represented was the United States.

Nelson O'Sheughnessy, the charge d'affaires, acting under instructions was absent from the session.

Audience Carefully Selected.

It was a carefully selected audience. Tickets were necessary to pass into the building and a fair part of the space was occupied by police and plain clothesmen.

There were a few empty chairs. A technical violation of the law created comment. General Huerta's staff filed in wearing side arms. It is specifically provided that no armed soldier shall appear on the floor of the house and customs in uniform must do so with empty scabbards. But the swords in evidence at the sides of the members of General Huerta's staff seemed to denote the fact that it is a military administration.

Some hundreds of curious gathered in the streets as near to the chamber as they were permitted to go but in most parts of the city the ordinary course of business and traffic was uninterrupted.

Pledges Co-operation.
In his reply to the message the president of the chamber, Senor Tamariz, assured General Huerta of the co-operation of congress.

It was learned after the session that the absent members of the Catholic party had acted in accordance with an agreement reached at a meeting held on Wednesday. Only three deputies of the Catholic party attended the session and this is taken to indicate that the Catholic party as represented by its members in congress is not insympathetic with the administration.

Will Protect Foreign Interests.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Washington government believes the power of the Huerta government is slowly "crumbling and disintegrating."

No positive steps have been taken by the administration here within the last few days to compel a compliance with the demand for the elimination of Huerta.

No preparations have been made for a blockade of Mexican ports such as has been variously reported. Foreign interests generally will be protected by the United States and at Tuxpam in particular special effort will be made to protect British interests pending the arrival of the British cruisers. The sending of the English ships is in line with previous notification to the United States and is regarded as a normal move taken in emergencies such as exist in Tuxpam. It is intended to have a controlling effect upon those constitutionalist officers who, according to official reports have announced their hostility to English interests.

Merely For Information.
The parleys with the constitutionalists have been carried on in no formal way, but merely for information purposes.

The administration though not condoning the inhumanity of the armed strife generally in Mexico, is inclined to view with some complacency the reprisals by constitutionalists and federals on those officers or men who have been deserting from side to side.

These salient facts were obtained from those with whom President Wilson discussed the Mexican situation today.

The impressions are that the Huerta government is fast losing its control over territory hitherto dominated by it is based on the despatches so the state department which show also that diplomatic pressure from without is having much to do with weakening the resources of the provisional government.

Will Be Compelled To Retire.
The president holds the view that as a result of all the influences now at work, Huerta will slowly but inevitably be compelled to yield to the force of circumstances and retire.

As to the future of the program of the United States the president believes that of necessity it must be kept within the secret councils of the administration. As a consequence there was no information obtainable as to the plans or purposes of the Washington government in the event that Huerta should retire.

The meeting tonight of the Mexican congress was one of the events around which much interest centered here. It was not expected that the Washington government would make any further moves until it could observe the acts of the new congress.

Huerta's message was made public at the state department and published today. His request for sanction of his acts was regarded as significant, as was the intimation that if the congress did not approve of his assumption of dictatorial powers or previous conduct, he and his cabinet would be resigned to the judgment.

There are many persons here conversant with the situation who believe Huerta merely wishes ratification for his acts so that he can retire in a dignified way.

Endorses Wilson Policy.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 20.—In response to a query today on the Mexican situation, Governor Dunne replied for publication:

"I do not favor intervention in Mexico at the present time. I commend the course being pursued by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and believe the sentiment of this state is heartily with them. In the event of war this state could furnish 8,000 fully equipped land and naval military within 24 hours and 50,000 unarmed volunteers within a week."

INDIAN SUMMER WEATHER GENERAL

ENTIRE COUNTRY EAST OF ROCKIES ENJOYS WARM WEATHER

Officials Explain That "Low Pressure" Atmospheric Wave Has Fallen Over Northern Hemisphere Causing the Unseasonable Warmth—Cooler Weather Predicted Soon.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Spring-like weather has overspread practically the entire country east of the Rocky Mountains.

After scanning the reports of their field agents tonight the weather bureau experts said that the Carolinas and Georgia were the only states in the east where normal late fall temperatures prevailed.

The official explanation of the unseasonable warmth is the fact that a "low pressure" atmospheric wave has fallen over the Northern hemisphere. It is said, however, that the wave is passing and that cooler weather should appear not later than tomorrow night. This was the warmest November 20th, Washington has experienced since 1879, when the government thermometer registered 80 degrees. The mercury climbed to 76 today and overcoats and furs, much in evidence for a month had to be abandoned.

Overcoats Discarded.
Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—Overcoats were discarded here today the temperature reaching a maximum of 74 degrees at one P. M., while the average for the day was 66.

Warm Day in New York.
New York, Nov. 20.—Today was the warmest November 20th in New York since official records began 42 years ago. The maximum was 70 degrees and the minimum 54 degrees.

Rose and snowball bushes burst into bloom this afternoon at Tarrytown, according to reports, which also stated that the temperature there reached 73 degrees.

Indian Summer Returns.
Chicago, Nov. 20.—Overcoats were shed, outdoors tollers were in shirt-sleeves and a few venturesome swimmers paddled in Lake Michigan today when the thermometer reached 68, making this the warmest November 20th of record in Chicago.

The weather here has been exceptionally mild for two days and no change is expected tomorrow.

The return of Indian summer was general in the Mississippi Valley. It was 86 at Cairo, 74 at Terre Haute, Louisville, Des Moines, Kansas City and Keokuk, and 72 at Omaha and Columbus. Minneapolis reported a temperature of 52. There were light showers today in several cities in the central west.

"I am from a Republican district and it takes money to get people to vote right in my district," Thomas announced in presenting his resolution that he looked ahead to getting his mileage of 20 cents for each mile traveled in coming to and leaving Washington.

"The people I owe," he said, "would be glad if I get my mileage. I need it and nine tenths of the members of the house feel exactly as I do."

The resolution was blocked by adjournment.

Remarks Struck Out of Report.
Later Mr. Thomas struck out of the report for the congressional record various parts of his remarks, including what he said regarding the need of money to get people to vote right.

PREPARATIONS FOR CURRENCY BATTLE

Three Separate Currency Bills Will Be Presented for Senate's Consideration Saturday

BASED ON THE SAME THEORY

Three Plans Agree Upon Purposes to Be Accomplished but Differ in Almost Every Point in Attempting to Carry Them Out

DEBATE WILL OPEN EARLY NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Final preparations were made today for the administration currency reform bill on the floor of the senate, which will begin on Saturday. Three currency bills, each based on the same general theory, will be laid before the senate by the divided banking and currency committee.

Unable to agree on amendments the committee will present the Glass-Owen bill as originally endorsed by the administration and passed by the house. The measure with amendments assumed to be acceptable to the president will be submitted by Chairman Owen and five other Democrats of the committee, Senators Pomerene, Hollis, Reid, O'Gorman and Shafroth. A bill materially changing the structure of the house measure will be presented by the Republicans, Senators Nelson, Weeks, Bristow, McLean and Crawford and Senator Hitchcock. Each of the proposed bills contemplates the issuance of a section secured by the prime commercial paper held by the banks of the country. Each provides for the establishment of reserve banks, which will issue the currency in exchange for commercial paper to the banks which will hold the reserves behind their deposits, mobilized for use in any emergency at which will rediscount the paper held by banks in the system, thus keeping available always credit and currency for use toward all financial crisis.

All Agree as to Purpose.
Although agreeing as to the purposes to be accomplished by the proposed legislation the three plans differ in almost every point in attempting to carry out these purposes. As it passed the house the Glass-Owen bill proposed the creation of twelve regional banks. The Democrats of the senate committee cut that down to eight, the minimum number the president was willing to accept. The Republicans reduced the number to four, holding that the small number could more effectively concentrate the reserves of the country.

Both the house bill and the Owen bill would allow country banks to loan on one-year farm mortgages. The Republicans amended this to allow banks to loan one-third of their time deposits on five year farm mortgages.

The Democrats eliminated from the bill a provision which would have required national banks to maintain separate departments to handle having deposits. Many other differences, principally on minor matters relating to the language of the measure, are apparent.

To prevent a disturbance of financial conditions while banks reserves are being shifted to the proposed new regional banks, the Owen bill would provide that banks may deposit commercial paper and currency as part of their reserve, under certain conditions. The Hitchcock-Republican bill would extend the life of the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency law for another year.

The democratic steering committee will meet tomorrow in an effort to arrange a program for the debate and to determine how the bills shall be handled on the floor of the senate. The debate is expected to open early next week.

DECIDES TO APPROVE COMPROMISE PLAN.
Washington, Nov. 20.—Secretary Garrison after an all day hearing decided tonight to approve a compromise plan agreed upon by representatives of the city of Chicago and army experts for an extension of Chicago's park system along Lake Michigan.

The plan contemplates a concession to the city by the war department of the right to make a filling on the lake front from 31st street to 15th street and about 1,000 feet broad, lying east of the Illinois Central railroad tracks.

PONTIAC BUSINESS MEN TESTIFY FOR DR. MARSHALL

Seventy-Five Merchants Appear as Character Witnesses for Reformatory Physician.

Pontiac, Ill., Nov. 20.—Local business men today came to the aid of J. A. Marshall, physician of the State Reformatory charged with cruelty to the inmates. Seventy-five appeared as character witnesses and after four had been questioned it was decided to have the others sworn and testify in a body.

All agreed Dr. Marshall's reputation was good and that they never heard his truthfulness questioned. J. R. Ives, deputy sheriff of Livingston county, attacked the credibility of the witnesses against Dr. Marshall, after twenty-two years experience with criminals he had found he said, that they are untruthful.

W. E. Herbert, superintendent of the Livingston county schools formerly a teacher in state reformatory said that corporal punishment was necessary at times to preserve discipline. He said Marshall treated the boys well.

F. H. Wood, printing instructor at the reformatory said the inmates have an underground route for disseminating information. "Thirty minutes after one boy has testified," he said, "every boy in the institution knows what he said and would give the same testimony."

RAIN MAY DAMPEN WARLIKE SPIRIT OF HOSTILE REDSKINS

Continued Unfavorable Weather Conditions Give Encouragement to Agency Officials.

Farmington, N. M., Nov. 20.—Continued rain for twenty-four hours made the position of the recalcitrant Navajo Indians encamped on Beautiful mountain near the Shiprock agency, very trying today and cooled materially the ardor of their sympathizers. These conditions gave encouragement to agency officials who have been trying to secure a settlement without bloodshed. The hope was expressed today that continued unfavorable weather would cause the Indians to weaken in the avowed determination to fight, if any attempt was made to capture the seven braves wanted by the United States court in New Mexico. Another hopeful sign was the action of one of the accused Indians today in surrendering to Indian Agent Shelton at Shiprock.

The medicine men, who assert that the school work at the agency destroys their occupation, continued their efforts today to induce others to join in the uprising but, it was said, with little, if any success.

Next Tax Near 70 Cents.
State Auditor Brady today prepared estimates indicating that the next tax rate will rise to somewhere near seventy cents as compared with thirty-eight cents last year. Gov. Dunne has contended that the rate last year was so low that it was necessary to apply the regular working balance of about four mil. on to the ordinary expenses of the state, thus making a higher tax rate necessary to offset the deficit caused by the previous low rate. The appropriations made by the forty-eighth general assembly aggregated $37,915,579.93 of which $23,539,575.42 was due for use by June 30th of next year.

Auditor Brady expects that the Illinois Central annual fee of $1,500,000 and other fees together with the increased tax rate will restore the working balance of about $2,500,000.

"MUTT AND JEFF IN PANAMA."

Gus Hill's new "Mutt and Jeff" production called "In Panama," is blazing a train of merriment that has never been equaled by a play of any sort of character. There seems to be no limit to the possibilities of laugh producing material to be culled from the famous Fisher cartoons, which are now running in more than one thousand daily and Sunday newspapers throughout the United States and Canada. This season's offering is entirely new, with the exception of the two inimitable droll characters, "A Mutt," and his little pal, "Mr. Othello Montgomery Jeffries." As is natural to suppose, fun is the and Jeff in Panama" has no equal in that respect as well as from the standpoint of a musical production. "Mutt and Jeff in Panama" has a equal in the annals of musical comedy. At the Grand, Monday, November 24.

CROOK FORGES CHECK; GETS THIRTY DOLLARS

A clever forger netted himself $30 by passing a regular printed check used by the Jacksonville Railway and Light Company on the Jacksonville National Bank. It is not known how the man secured one of the regular printed checks, and he displayed considerable insight when he made it out for no larger amount. The forgery was not detected until the check went to the company's account at the Bank of America. A representative of the Pinkerton agency was in the city to investigate the matter.

ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR NEW DRAINAGE DISTRICT

FIGURES SUBMITTED ON BENEFITS FROM MAUVAISTERRE DITCH.

Objections Can Be Made to Jury December First—Eight Hundred and Twenty-Nine Acres Will Be Benefited—22,000 Cubic Yards Of Earth To Be Removed.

The commissioners roll of benefits and damages in the Mauvaisterre Creek drainage district has been filed in the office of County Clerk Boruff. The roll as filed by L. O. Vaught for the commissioners was prepared under direction of H. L. Caldwell, engineer, and shows the total number of acres assessed to be $29.17. The total benefits assessed are $30,875 and the acres taken for the proposed ditch 64.24. The damage to land taken is $3212 and the net benefits $27,663. The actual cost to farm owners in figures at $26.25 per acre. The commissioners of the district are J. A. Moss, F. J. Blackburn and Harry Ogle.

The proposed ditch will be 5.3 miles long extending from a point east of the C. & A. road, west to the Ticknor farm. The ditch will be twenty feet wide at the bottom, with an average depth of eight feet and a slope of one to one. The amount of earth to be removed will be 22,000 cubic yards and when the construction work is done floating dredges will be used.

After the assessment roll was filed Judge Brockhouse fixed the hearing for December first when a jury will take the matter up. Objectors may appear at that time. The jury will then view the land and give their opinion as to the justice of the assessments. Following the approval of the roll, the first assessment is due within thirty days and during that time the commissioners will let a contract. In many cases bonds are issued for such improvements but in this instance the cash will be paid. A majority of the land owners have agreed upon a nominal price to be paid for the land to be used for the ditch.

WILL HOLD GRAND OPENING TO CELEBRATE REMOVAL

Thompson Produce Co. Invite the Public to Call at Their New Home on South Main Street Today.

Products from all over the world and from almost every country will be shown this afternoon at the grand opening of the Thompson Produce Co. in celebration of their removal from South Sandy street to roomy quarters in the Worthington building, 229-233 South Main street. The presence of the ladies is especially requested. Among the large variety of fruits, American and foreign; vegetables, green stuffs, and nuts, on exhibition will be found articles of diet new to the market which will be welcomed by every progressive and up-to-date housewife. The retail merchants are extended a special invitation also, whether they have been customers in the past or not. The food products on exhibition are from every portion of the habitable globe and will be of interest to farmers, orchardists and gardeners.

A. Thompson, the manager of the company, has been compelled to move twice within the last twelve months by the growth of the business. Mr. Thompson has had years of experience in the produce business, first with the Wadsworth & Cannon Produce Co. as a salesman, and then with the J. E. Cella Co., a branch of which he opened in this city three years ago. The business grew to such a size by January 1912, that more room was necessary and the room on West Morgan street now occupied by J. K. Long was vacated for the late quarters on South Sandy street.

A short time after this Mr. Thompson bought out his employer, changing the name of the firm to the "Thompson Produce Co." From the small beginning of three years ago the firm has grown to be one of the largest and most prosperous of Jacksonville business houses.

The present quarters of the firm are large and commodious and well adapted to the demands of the produce business. The three rooms formerly occupied by John T. Sample & Son have a street frontage of 75 feet. Back of these is a goodsized ware-room opening on a rear drive. The office room partitioned off in the northeast corner of the building is neat and attractive and well furnished with modern office equipment. C. M. Fiedler, the head clerk and bookkeeper has his desk here as does the stenographer, Miss Edith Horroft, and the president of the company and general manager of the business, A. Thompson.

The Thompson Produce Co. sells to the retail merchant alone and not to the consumer. For this reason the public generally is not acquainted with the large line carried and the volume of business transacted by the company. It is their purpose to get better acquainted and the president, Mr. Thompson, extends a cordial invitation to the public to inspect the new quarters of a prosperous and growing business.

MRS. WALTON IS GRANTED DIVORCE FROM HUSBAND

Former Residents of Jacksonville Figure in Suit at St. Paul—Romance of Marriage Is Detailed In Court.

St. Paul papers contain notices of the fact that Mrs. Ida May Walton formerly a resident of this city has been granted a divorce from her husband, P. T. Walton. During their residence in Jacksonville, Mr. Walton was a draftsman for the Illinois Steel Bridge company. One paper had the following notice of the trial: "Mrs. Ida May Walton, testifying in a divorce suit against P. T. Walton, in district court today, told how she had fled down the firing pin of her husband's revolver so that in case he shot at her the gun would not go off. She claimed he had threatened to shoot her. Judge O. B. Lewis granted a divorce."

Married in Haste. Another paper gave this story of the trial: "The divorce was granted by Judge Lewis today in district court to Mrs. Ida May Walton, who was suing Percy Thomas Walton. Mrs. Walton will receive $1,000 alimony and the household furniture valued at $600. The marriage of the couple at Bellevue, Ill., May 27, 1904, had been a sudden affair, according to the testimony of Mrs. Walton today. Mrs. Walton said that Mr. Walton rushed into her house on his wedding day and announced that they were to be married at once. Mrs. Walton said that she was engaged in bottling strawberries at the time but the license was obtained and the ceremony performed the same day."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Rev. and Mrs. McCullom, of the Methodist church of Murrayville, entertained the members of the official board and their wives at dinner Thursday evening. The event was held in the basement of the church and a most enjoyable evening was spent. There were several who spoke and it was a time of getting better acquainted with the new pastor and his wife. Dr. F. A. McCarty, district superintendent was in attendance.

Mrs. Earl Rexroat entertained a company of friends at a 6 o'clock dinner at her home in Litchberry Thursday evening. The guest list included: Misses Mae Martin, Katie Petefish, Evaloe Petefish, Lora Petefish, Annabel Crum and Miss Louise Siegler of Virginia. Also Arthur Liter, Clyde Martin and Charles McDonald of this city.

Mrs. Wayne Dinwiddie of Arcadia entertained the members of the missionary society of the Ebenezer church Thursday evening at her home. Among the guests were a number from Litchberry.

The Junior Etude Club will meet at the home of Miss Edith Rogers on South Diamond street this afternoon.

Mrs. H. H. Bancroft entertained Thursday afternoon for Mrs. H. C. Wyman, limited number of friends of the best of honor. Each guest was expected to bring something for the larger of Mrs. Woldman's new home, the first letter of the name of the article to be identical with the first letter of the donor's name. Each gift was accompanied with an original verse or couplet and Mrs. Woldman opened the various packages and read the verse aloud. The refreshments had been generously planned and the occasion was one of very special pleasure.

GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwaberg of South Clay avenue were given a very pleasant surprise party at their home Thursday evening by about twenty members of the local Court of Honor No. 30. The self invited guests brought with them an abundant supply of light refreshments which were served after a very pleasant time spent with music and games.

A STRIDE IN MINSTRELS. After seeing Richards & Pringle's latest achievement in Minstrelsy, you will surely agree with others who have pronounced this season's production a complete example of the latest strides in the advancement of this popular form of attraction. This big production, carrying thirty all-star colored performers, an immense concert band, and the very latest in costumes and scientific effects, positively appear at the Grand Wednesday, Nov. 26. Admitting that fun—bright, refined fun—is the essence of minstrelsy, the elaborate part of this season's production is sparkling with brilliant and beautiful effects. The company will give a big street parade and band concert at noon. Be sure and get tickets early.

RICHARDS & PRINGLE'S BIG MINSTREL SHOW

The Richard & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels, the big colored minstrel aggregation of all colored performers, will appear at the Grand on Wednesday, Nov. 26. This organization is one of the oldest and most successful in the minstrel line and has a reputation reaching from ocean to ocean. In improved minstrelsy the old "one man star" system gives way to an all-around collection of bright, talented performers. Just as the Frohman and Daly Companies, of New York City, and the former Wallack company discarded the "Star" plan for general all-around ability. In improved minstrelsy, no old traces of the past are permitted, but new material responds to new demands. The interesting program is a long one and filled with latest up-to-date ideas and novelties.

SENATOR DENVIR REGARDS LETTERS AS WORK OF PRACTICAL JOKER BEGIN FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR WHITE HOUSE WEDDING

Incident Which Enlivened Inter-State Commerce Commission Hearing is Regarded as Closed.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The incident of the "Denvir letters," which enlivened an otherwise dull session of an inter-state commerce hearing yesterday was regarded as closed today. State Senator Denvir, who aside from his political distinction, is recognized as one of the greatest of the world's checker players, when seen today continued to laugh at the subject. He reiterated that the letter which threatened legislative vengeance on the Burlington road for not furnishing him with an annual pass was the work of a practical joker, perhaps inspired by the senator's opposition to the acceptance of passes by legislators.

State's Attorney Hoyle said that the subject had not been called to his attention and this was also the situation in other official quarters.

TO HOLD SERIES OF CONFERENCES WITH DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

President Wilson Will Discuss Phases of Trust Question With Democrats Before Writing Address.

Washington, Nov. 20.—President Wilson began today a series of conferences with Democratic leaders on phases of the trust question on which he will touch in a general way in his address to the regular session of congress next month. It is expected that the address will make general recommendations leaving to the committees of congress the working out of remedies to be written in bills on which the administration hopes to secure an agreement among the leaders before the legislation is actually launched.

Those who have talked with the president on the trust question say he apparently is seeking to learn to what extent the views of the Democratic leaders agree with those he entertained from his own inspection of the problem.

Sleep and Laughter.

People who sleep well quickly recover from an ailment, and for this reason, years ago, sleep was pronounced as one of nature's cures for all diseases. Experiments go to prove that a person who accustoms himself or herself to a full and regular sleep is not so liable to an attack of disease as the person who forgoes his proper rest. Moreover, when attacked by any ailment, a good sleeper recovers the quicker.

"Laugh and live" is a time honored saying, and a famous doctor once recommended one of his patients to try a course of funny stories. The patient, who was suffering from a nervous breakdown through overwork, obeyed the doctor's instructions, and the effect of hearty laughter soon brought him round. The menu recommended was one funny story at each meal with two extra at dinner.

Official Bread.

This is the way to make official bread, given out by the chief cook of the department of agriculture:

"For three pound loaves—make ferment of one ounce cake compressed yeast, one ounce granulated sugar, half ounce salt and twenty ounces water. Place in even temperature for an hour. Weigh four and one-half pounds flour and let it warm. Mix flour and ferment together. Cover mixture and warm for twenty minutes. If dough is too stiff add lukewarm water. After twenty minutes more take up dough with hands slightly greased and fold over and over fourteen times. Cover, set aside for twenty minutes; then fold nine times. After twenty minutes more mold into loaves and bake forty minutes in a steady oven 400 to 410 degrees F. A cup of water in the oven will make a tenderer crust."

How She Knew.

"I do think," exclaimed Mrs. Tolker indignantly, "that Mrs. Gadabout is the most aggravatingly inquisitive woman, if I must say so, I ever knew. Why, I never pass her on the street but what she invariably turns her head and stares back at me to see what I've got on and how it sits from behind."

"How—er—that is, I was wondering, my dear, how you found out that the mean thing looked back. Some one tell you?" inquired Mr. Tolker innocently. And Mrs. Tolker straightaway turned the stream of her indignation, seething hot, from Mrs. Gadabout to her "insinuating wretch of a husband," as she fondly termed him, and after the first pyrotechnic outburst refused to speak to the fortunate man for the rest of the evening.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Price of Peace.

She appeared to be somewhat excited when he came home that night, and he naturally asked the cause.

"The man in the top hat has fallen in love with our cook," she said.

"What of it?" he asked.

"He's been trying to get her to run away and marry him."

"Do you mean the man who practices on the cornet every night?"

She said she did, and he made a dive for his pocket.

"Tell the cook," he exclaimed excitedly, "that I'm a poor man, but I'll give $50 if she'll do it." St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Some of the famous old southern dishes from Miss Wilson's maternal grandmother's cook book have been included in the volume which has been bound in practical form so it will not be damaged by use. It is essentially a volume for the kitchen, note the library, and is said to have been one of the gifts in which the president's daughter has taken most delight.

BAYARD HALE HAS NOTABLE CAREER IN MEXICO

Unofficial Representative of President Wilson Has Had Interesting Record in International Affairs.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The important role which William Bayard Hale plays in the present Mexican imbroglio is the unofficial and confidential representative of President Wilson has brought that remarkable man again into the limelight of public interest. The last time he held the centre of the stage was in 1908,
when he had that famous interview with Emperor William, the publication of which came dangerously near causing serious international complications between Germany and England. His present appearance in a semi-diplomatic role under the most critical conditions and in connection with a situation requiring the most skillful diplomatic handling, naturally revives the interest in Mr.
Hale's remarkable and somewhat stormy career.

William Bayard Hale was born in Richmond, Ind., April 6, 1869. His father was a man of wealth and gave him an excellent education by private tutors. Young Hale had brilliant talents and was scarcely more than a boy when he entered the field of literature by writing poetry and short stories for newspapers and magazines. He also showed considerable ability as an orator and took active part in one or two of the Democratic state campaigns. Then he came to Boston, studied at Boston university and Harvard and completed his education at the Episcopal theological school at Cambridge.
There he became acquainted with Bishop Phillips Brooks, who took great interest in the brilliant young student.

The bishop placed him in charge of a mission in Middleboro, Mass., which under the energetic leadership of young Hale developed into the Church of Our Savior. As the rector of the parish the Rev. William Bayard Hale became exceedingly popular in Middleboro and his brilliant ability attracted attention throughout New England. In 1895 he caused a sensation by publishing a paper entitled
"A Religious Analysis of a New England Town," in which he pleaded for the unification of church interests, at least in small towns, and severely criticized the methods used by churches to attract crowds and to raise funds. This paper and many of his sermons containing similar criticisms, made him extremely unpopular with clergymen of all denominations. He preached a series of notable sermons in St. Paul's church in Boston, and in 1897 he lectured at Oxford university, by invitation, on "The Making of the American Constitution," making an excellent impression.

He retained his hold on his own parish until 1897, when his engagement to Miss Mabel Matilda Jolly, the daughter of a Middleboro woolen merchant, was announced. His choice did not meet with the approval of some of the old women in the parish and they made things so disagreeable for the young minister that he resigned and accepted a call to a small parish in Ardmore, Pa. He married Miss Jolly in 1899 and took her to Ardmore. Seven months later she left him and in 1901 she obtained a divorce on the ground of cruelty. After the divorce had been granted Mr. Hale retired from the ministry and, for some time at least,
tried to earn a living as an insurance agent. Becoming dissatisfied with the insurance business, Mr. Hale gave it up and turned newspaper and magazine writer. He also took active part in politics and went on the stump for Bryan in 1900.

In 1908, while employed by a New York newspaper, Mr. Hale went to Europe and obtained, through the intervention of Baron von Sternberg, who had been German ambassador to the United States, an opportunity to interview Emperor William who,
at that time, was cruising off the coast of Norway in the imperial yacht Hohenzollern. It was on board of that yacht that Mr. Hale had that famous interview with such a sensational result.

The emperor was severely criticized for his indiscreet utterances and the German foreign office made strenuous effort to suppress the publication of the interview which was intended for a prominent American magazine. Although part of the edition had already been printed, the publishers of the magazine consented to suppress the edition and to destroy the plates and eventually the matter was hushed up.

Mr. Hale was literary editor of a New York newspaper when President Wilson became governor of New Jersey. Mr. Hale was a strong supporter of Mr. Wilson and became an intimate friend of the governor. The friendship continued after Mr. Wilson was elected president and Mr. Hale was a frequent visitor at the white house. When the Mexican situation became acute, President Wilson sent Mr. Hale to Mexico as his personal representative, to obtain authentic information and to devise concerning the conditions in Mexico.

TO CONSTRUCT A ROADWAY.

mission has decided that the Burlington railroad shall construct a sidewalk and build a roadway that can be used at any season of the year from the city limit of Virden to its present depot, about a mile west of town, or rebuild the old line through the town and open the old depot.
This is the end of the litigation that has been in the courts for years.

OHIO MUNICIPAL PLANT IS WELL MANAGED

CITIZENS OF TROY BELIEVE IN MUNICIPAL LIGHTING.

Proposition Showed Fine Profit in 1912 Besides Furnishing City Light Without Cost—Troy Has
Population of 7,000.

Municipal lighting is done in Troy,
Ohio, by a plant owned by the city.
Troy is a city of about 7,000 population and the plant which is managed by a commission does both the commercial and municipal lighting.
Last year the plant showed a profit of about $9,000 and the city received light without cost.

Municipal Engineering, a magazine dealing with municipal problems, gives a history of the plant written by L. A. Pool, its superintendent. This successfully operated plant is one that has been pointed out by Commissioner Spaulding of Springfield in the light that he is making in Springfield for an increase of electrical equipment in the Springfield plant and a consolidation of water and light stations.

The article was as follows:
The evolution of electric lighting and power, which has been so marked during the last twelve years, with the wonderful changes and improvements in apparatus and methods has been very distinctively demonstrated in the career of the Troy municipal electric light plant.

The city of Troy was originally supplied with current for lighting and power by a private corporation known as the Troy Electric Light and Power Company, who were hampered in their service with the usual grade of inefficient and inadequate apparatus on the market at that time.

They had to contend with the old style equipment of small boilers,
high speed engines and generators,
and, to some extent, inexperienced labor, which, with a high rate of charge for current naturally worked up an agitation for the city to have a plant of its own. This dissatisfaction on the part of the citizens finally culminated in the purchase of the franchise and equipment of the private company by the city in 1907, for which it paid $27,- 500.

The council immediately reduced the rates from 15 cents to 8 cents per kilowatt for metered current and from 85 cents to 40 cents per month for each 16 c. p. lamp.

The plant, by hard struggling, increased in capacity and output each year under the management of competent boards of control until the years of 1903 and 1904, at which time a new board came into control of the plant, of whom a majority were opposed to the municipal ownership of anything and political disturbances ran rampant during the two years of their term of office.
The possibilities of what the city could gain by operating its own plant, under proper management, had been so thoroughly demonstrated during the four years previous,
they could not force the plant to a sale or discredit it, although they carried their contention into the court in a general lawsuit.

This airing of municipal ownership in general and the city's electric plant in particular, was of great value to the citizens of Troy, who were shown the merits and demerits of the plant, and they have made it a point each election since to pick good, honest practical business men to manage the city's affairs. With the above exception, Troy's municipal electric plant has been practically free from political influences and the management of the plant has had a free hand in the operation and management, making it possible to hold the same forces of employees year after year.

Distribution.
The electrical energy for lighting, which is distributed throughout the city at a potential of 1150 volts in six single phase feeders, is transformed through 80 Fort Wayne transformers to 110 volts for lighting purposes.

Current is furnished at 220 volts, three-phase for power in a large installation and 110 volts a. c. and 250 and 500 volts direct for small motors and elevators.

The plant has connected 1,525 h.
p. of motors from which a large revenue is derived, 1,050 meters on lighting services, 66 meters on power services and 150 small contract consumers of light and power. The meters are practically all of Fort Wayne manufacture.

The city is lighted with 155 Western Electric 7.5 amp series tungsten arc lamps, 34 series tungsten lamps, (60 watt) and 90 lamps (16 c. p.)
the alleys, arches and public square lamp posts.

Rates.

The rate for lighting current is 7 1-2 cents per kilowatt for all purposes except for sign lighting, which is 5 1-2 cents per kilowatt. Power is furnished for 4 cents for the first 100 K. W., 3 cents per K. W., for the next 200 K. W., and 2 cents for the next 20,000 K. W. The above rates are subject to a discount of 10 per cent, if payment is made before the 10th of each month. A rate of 40 cents per month for each 16 c.
p. lamp is charged on contract. The minimum charge for current for meters is 66 cents per month and 50 cents per horse power per month for motors.

Financial Statement for 1912.

The receipts from sale of lighting current for last year, 1912 were $25,228.04; from the current for power, $12,269.00; and for miscellaneous sources, $215.00, making a total amount of $37,712.00. Cash on hand January 1, 1912, $6,096.- 00.

The expenses for the year were for general administration, $3,168.- 60; manufacture maintenance, $2,- 700.00; distribution, maintenance

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

The list of players who sailed from Victoria, B. C., Wednesday afternoon underwent considerable pruning. The advance list sent out by the press associations was not at all like the one which took the lighter at Victoria wharf to be transferred to the ocean liner as she ploughed through the surf in "Dick's Quay." Joe C. Farrell, leader of the Woodlawn Bards, and a crone of the Old Roman, who was with the troupe when it embarked, sends the following list, which readers of this column can depend upon is official: For the Giants—George Wiltsie and Bunny Hearne, pitchers; Ivy Wingo of the Cardinals, catcher; Fred Merkle, first base; Larry Doyle, second base; John Lebert of the Quakers, short stop; Jim Thorpe, right field; Mike Donlin, free agent, center field, and Lee McGee of the Cardinals, left field. At the expiration of his term as governor of the Keystone state, one year from January 1 next, he will hitch to the active harness and control the destinies (unhindered) of the old league for a four year term. What his salary will be the governor refused to say, but in National league circles it listened something like $25,000 per annum.

If Kewanee, this state, is to enjoy league ball next season its citizens must within two weeks come across with a cash bonus of $4,000. Otherwise, the Central association franchise will go to one of the several other Illinois cities ready and willing to support a team.

Second Baseman Hultzwilth of the Colonels has at last reached the pinnacle he has been years in quest. On Wednesday arrangements were made for his transfer to Jersey City in the International league. He will become manager of the Skeeters next season.

The ticket scalpers are putting the blocks to the public in Madison, Wis., and in Chicago in the sale of tickets for the Badger-Maroon football game in the Windy City tomorrow. Through the confederacy of students and ushers from one of the high schools the speculators have snapped up 3,000 of the $2 seats. On Tuesday they were asking from $5 to $7 for the tickets; but Wednesday prices were advanced from $7 to $10. At Madison the holdup is even stronger than that. The faculty of both universities are in the air because of the scandal created and many are predicting an early death for football as a college sport.

The mat game (Greco-Roman and catch-as-catch-can wrestling) is allowed to go on unhindered in Chicago. A few years ago Mayor Harrison stormed a certain big hall with an army of bluecoats and craved one of these sure-things. Just now the lid seems to be tilted in the metropolis and these so-called grapplers are taking every advantage of the apparatus. Chicago has a new superintendent of police who is a policeman from the ground up. At present he is busily engaged in driving known crooks and vice panders from the city, but when he reaches the manufacturers and hawkers of gold bricks there will be a lively scamper to cover by these alleged champion Sampsons.

When the Maroons tackle the Badgers at Chicago tomorrow, each player will be accompanied. This will not be the only innovation of Coach Stagg. Beside a number the name of each player will be sewed into his playing Jersey. Alfonso is not without fear as to the working of this new stunt, being inclined to believe it will prove a handicap. In that Wisconsin's players will be able the more readily to identify the most powerful players on the team and play for them entirely.

Former President Taft is so enthusiastic about golf, that, in discussing the game and its benefits at New Haven, said that he hoped to see the time not far distant when public golf courses will be offered to the people as in Scotland for those who cannot pay costly club privileges. He would have the necessary funds raised by taxation because golf is pre-eminently a game for the people and they should be allowed to play it. Some of Jacksonville's "tee-off" enthusiasts should get into communication with Professor Taft. Possibly he could awaken interest in "those beautiful links" that were going to be laid out in Nichols park this fall.

TRADES RESIDENCE PROPERTY. Mrs. Mary E. Peak, who is spending the winter in Denver, through her attorney, William E. Thompson, has traded her residence property at 507 Hardin avenue, to Earl M. Johnston for the residence property at 1721 South Main street, which has been known as the Schofield house.

WILL SEE YALE-HARVARD GAME. Walter Bellatti left Thursday afternoon for Cambridge, Mass., where he will witness the football game between his alma mater, Harvard, and Yale university. Mr. Bellatti expects to return to the city next Thursday.

Grand Jury Cases. The following have been arrested through Sheriff Rogers office on indictments returned by the grand jury, J. E. Rawlings, Belle Rawlings, Eva and W. Hettick, charged with arson and conspiracy; Robert Stewart, selling liquor in anti-saloon territory; Susan Kirkpatrick and Ella Cox, keeping disorderly houses.

BACK FROM MISSOURI. Robert T. Cassell has returned from Steelville, Mo., near which place he has a farm situated in the Ozarks. He says some of it is rocky and some of it fine land. At present it is well covered with timber some of which is of good size and some not so large and all is promising, much being good oak. He says a few miles from his line one direction is a large deposit of iron ore; in another lead and in still another zinc, and as all are within a few miles of his it doesn't seem unreasonable to suppose that there is valuable ore on his farm though he hasn't done any prospecting yet and doesn't think he will.

While there he visited an iron mine and brought home some fine samples of the ore which is of high grade. He said also he saw one set of men getting iron ore simply from a big hole in the ground and getting lots of it too. The zinc and lead mines near Robert's farm are also quite productive and make the owners lots of money. He says there is a railroad within three miles of his farm so that it will be very valuable if they find ore on it, a consummation devoutly wished by Robert's many friends.

ONE WAY TO MAKE MONEY.

Warns All to Watch Tricky Poultry Shippers.

The following notice was sent out from Washington, D. C., and as Thanksgiving and Christmas day are approaching it may interest the housewives.

"Uncovering a trick of unprincipled dealers in chickens, the department of agriculture today issued a warning to housewives to be on their guard against sand stuffed fowls. Of the unprincipled poultry shippers it says:

"Some of these poultry shippers, a day of two before the chicken is killed, feed it red pepper, which makes the chicken have an abnormal appetite, then they feed a mixture of fine sand and a little cornmeal. The chicken eats this mixture ravenously and as a result large quantities of sand are introduced into the crop and intestines as well.

"It simply means that the dealers are selling sand to the consumer at the rate of 20 cents or more per pound."

BAGGAGE TROUBLE TO TOURISTS IN RUSSIA

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS STRICTLY ENFORCE REGULATIONS.

Passports Also Go Through a Great Deal of Red Tape—Jacksonville Tourist Describes Incidents of Trip to Stockholm, Sweden.

(By S. W. Nichols.)

Stockholm, Sweden. Here we are last out of the dominion of the czar and I feel as if a weight were lifted from my head. Russia is surely the land of an autocrat and one in which freedom is a scarce article for any save the few favored ones. When we stopped at any place the first thing was to hand over our passports and leave them in custody of the hotel landlord for safe keeping. Then before leaving the city the passports must go to the chief of police, who would sign them, stating that we had conducted ourselves in a proper manner and were graciously permitted to go to the next place, all of course, on the payment of a fee. Finally when we left the train for the steamer we had to run the gauntlet of a bevy of Russian officials who carefully examined our passports to see that we were going out in proper form and had not done anything to injure the prestige of their royal master. The documents were taken from us and we meekly went on board the steamer and before landing the passports were given back, to be kept as a reminder that we had been in Russia.

A kindly word of advice to any readers of the Journal who may contemplate a trip to that country, and I know of some who do. If you can get along with hand baggage pray don't take any more, for a trunk will be a trouble to you. The custom house is right beside the station and into the form-tramp was placed and when we wanted to get it there was more tape. We went there for it about two p. m. and found the official in charge was out and wouldn't be in till seven that evening and no one else could wait on us, for the door to the baggage room was locked and sealed with wax and it would be Siberia or death for any one else but his august highness to open it, so we had to go back to the hotel and impatiently wait for the appointed hour, which at last arrived and so we did, but not the official and that door must not be touched. At last he showed up, the door was opened and our trunk brought out and had to be unlocked and unlocked. Our guide said once he had an American in tow who wanted to avoid the humiliating process and it took him three days to see the proper officials higher up and get the permit, so we thought we would submit. Did it contain a bomb or any sort of an infernal machine which might be used in blowing up some titled aristocrat or scion of royalty? Was it filled with vodka, the drink of the people which the government sells to them? Did it have silks and laces which we were trying to smuggle out of the country or anything of that sort? That and all other questions must be submitted to the gentle man in uniform, so he stood by and looked wise while the trunk was opened and I will say for him that something in our appearance or that of the things on top satisfied him and he ordered the lid put down greatly to our relief. I had my mind made up for a pretty stiff bill for this and nearly fell over when all that was demanded was twenty kopecks or about ten cents.

We then congratulated ourselves that our troubles were over and hastened to the railroad station, some two miles or more away, in ending to check the trunk for the train next morning. We had a common dray and the driver had to carry the trunk on the dashboard and his knees, which was anything but pleasant, but he stood it stoically and away we went. A porter carried the trunk into the baggage department and there we met a howling mob each trying to get a half a dozen things checked at once. It seemed as if the press and baggage all were handled at the same place and we were hurried, pulled and shouted at the men scurrying around like chickens with their heads cut off, stumbling over each other, no doubt getting off a volley of Russian cuss words and accomplishing but little if anything.

No one could speak a word of English and a man who could talk German was finally discovered and we showed him our tickets and frantically begged him to wait on us. It was not his duty, as he was check clerk, but he referred us to the right one and we found that we couldn't check the trunk so far ahead, but he would take us to the depot master and see if he wouldn't relent so to that uniformed official he hastened and found him at last and in broken German I made known my wants, but my petition might as well have been made to a fence post. He was obdurate and said the trunk would not be checked till morning. Then I asked him to let it remain in the baggage room till morning, but again he shook his head and all entreaties were in vain.

The baggage man piled the trunk up at one end of the platform, but we felt it would be unsafe to leave it there, so we had the porter carry it out again to the dray which we were hiring by the hour, and returned to the hotel. The clerk there was much surprised and said the trunk should have remained in the station over night, but he reluctantly had it carried into the baggage room and next morning we anxiously left for the station, the offending trunk again on the knees of the dray driver. Again we entered pandemonium and by getting over and putting the trunk on the scales and pushing the men about we did get it checked and started for the train. The cars were very comfortable and we had good seats, though not a compartment to ourselves this time, as we had companions, but they were not unpleasant and we rode through poor, oppressed Finland a good part of the day and as we glided along I could not help thinking of the iron heel under which that unhappy land is writhing and all to no purpose, for the autocrat owns it and will oppress it all he chooses. The scenery was rather pleasant some of the way, but I couldn't help noticing the lack of care with which some of the land was treated. Acres which might have made good pasture or meadows were much given over to underbrush of no worth whatever and I concluded that all ambition had been taken from the people and all they cared for was enough to eat and wear. We saw women mowing and working in the fields and for many miles saw hay hung up on frames as in Sweden and Norway, to be cured, as there is not enough heat in the air and on the ground to accomplish it otherwise. Sometimes the peasants place poles about six feet high and supported on little cross frames thickly about the meadow and then pile about them a bit of hay and we would occasionally see a meadow which had yielded well dotted thickly with the little cones so small in diameter that the hay could finish curing with safety.

Men and women with rakes and scythes laboriously prepared the hay for putting up and had been paid as help is remunerated in our country it would have been rather costly feed. How much better off we are in our own free country. But I guess I referred to that matter before.

The ride to Stockholm was rather pleasant, though the boat was crowded and the berths so small that one person had to rise and retire and get out of the way for the others. Mr. Ewert and I had two other gentlemen with us, but they were pleasant, while Mrs. Ewert and Henrietta had two ladies with them and the rooms were about the size of a closet or as large as a Saratoga trunk. Nearly all the way we were among islands except in the middle of the night and the sun set so late that it was hard to go to bed, as I found some very pleasant and intelligent gentlemen with whom I spent a delightful evening and well toward midnight. The sky was clear and the sunset beautiful, while the boats of fishermen lent a charm to the scene about us. Some of the islands were little more than bare rocks, while others were well wooded and were beautiful and romantic. As we neared the city we noticed a good many of the islands were occupied with fine residences, doubtless the summer homes of some of Stockholm's wealthy citizens. It reminds me much of the Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence, though the islands here were hardly as picturesque as those, though they were quite beautiful.

Stockholm is a moral city and arriving Sunday morning we found almost every place of business except hotels and restaurants closed and only a few of the latter were doing business. We went at once to the Hotel Belvue, at which I stayed six years ago, and found it the same neat and inviting place as ever. As soon as we were located we started out to church and though unable to understand the sermon, we heard some good singing in a fine edifice and otherwise enjoyed the exercises, though the good man's discourse was rather long, but that is often the way in Lutheran churches.

It is indeed good to get into such a land as Sweden again, see the neat and tasty buildings, the cheerful people and the civilized ways. We have hardly seen any merriment since we left Japan, where all was so full of life and interest and glad again to see the young and old enjoying their good times and making the most of life, with some hopes of improvement and advancing as they go along.

Stockholm is the capital of Sweden and is located at the influx of Lake Mälaren with an arm of the Baltic sea, which forms a good harbor, but is liable to be frozen over several months of the year, as the latitude is nearly 60 degrees north. The place is located on islands, plain and rocky promontories and is quite picturesque and has several points of view which are charming. Owing to the fact that it is surrounded by water and has so much of the same with its limits, it has been termed the Venice of the north. In many places, bare granite rocks of great size are seen in dooryards and elsewhere and in others great walls of rock rise high in the air, making a picturesque sight. In some parts fine residences have been built right among the rocks and trees and great boulders two and three feet thick or in diameter have been worked into the walls surrounding the premises, making an interesting spectacle.

The foundation of the place dates from 1255, when Birger Jarl of Bleibo fortified the place or village, which had often been destroyed by pirates and made it the capital of his kingdom. It was a long time before the town grew beyond the island and when it did so the Danish besiegers several times destroyed it. About the middle of the XVth century the people were strong enough to build beyond the fortifications. At first the buildings were of wood and several disastrous fires erected it, but finally the buildings decreed were of more substantial material. The city now numbers some 275,000 inhabitants and is a fine place, clean and inviting. Owing to its location so near the water it is a seafaring city to a great extent and boating and water excursions are favorite forms of amusement. It has a number of most lovely parks, situated conveniently within the city limits, while the far famed Skansen is a place of resort for the masses. It contains a large area of natural forest and has a lot of attractions, including several old time peasant log houses, a restaurant served by young women in peasant garb, many animals and birds, observation towers, Lapland homes, lagoons with aquatic birds and animals. Then there are the imperial palace, which would look fine and even dazzling had we not seen the structure of that kind in Russia; there are also museums and various other attractions which make the place very delightful. There are also scattered about the city various statues, also an obelisk erected by Gustavus IV in 1799 in honor of the loyalty of the citizens in the war with Russia, when the nobles were hostile to their sovereign.

In another place is a fine statue of Gustavus III by a Spanish sculptor named J. T. Sargel. The figure is represented leaning on a rudder in token of the naval victories achieved under the reign of that sovereign. The building in which we attended divine worship is called the Church of St. Nicholas and was founded by Birger Jarl in 1264. It was rebuilt in 1726-43 and thoroughly restored in 1892. The interior consists of a nave with double aisles, with a rich, reredos from Augsburg in silver, ivory and ebony, with 18 scenes from the Passion. There is also a fine brass candelabrum with seven branches, two large pictures of the last judgment and crucifixion, several ancient tombstones, rich silver vessels in the sacristy and other fine furniture and adornments of different kinds.

The Swedish language contains some fearfully long words. From the window of the room occupied by Mr. Ewert and myself we can see across the way a sign which is a stunner, it is as follows, just as written, large and small letters.

Inbrottsförsäkring
olycksfallförsäkring
SKANDINAVIEN
sjukförsäkring
glasförsäkring

I think it contains books and stationery from the looks of the front windows, and each line is one word.

Copenhagen. Our stay in Stockholm was rather short, as Mr. and Mrs. Ewert and Henrietta have decided to change their itinerary and take in southern Europe instead of the route we had at first planned, so we shall separate and I shall proceed at once to dear old Jacksonville, while they go on. I expect to arrive early in August and they should be at home about the middle of September or a little after. I thought Copenhagen was beautiful when I was there four years ago, but it has much improved since that time. Stockholm has one great curiosity that belongs to no other city I ever saw and that is a bridge made of logs fastened together and crossing an arm of the bay half a mile wide. The logs lie on the surface of the water and there are two places at which they can be turned aside or swung out of the way for passing boats. Copenhagen is justly noted for its beautiful parks, neatly kept streets and handsome buildings and general appearance. It is indeed a beautiful place and we much enjoyed a day there. The great attraction was the Thorswolden museum where are shown the sculptures and paintings of that wonderful man who accomplished a vast amount of work in one lifetime. His statue of Christ is one of the fine pieces of the world and is widely known and copied. We took an automobile ride among the Glyptothek, which is a museum endowed by a wealthy citizen who loved his city. Our stay was but two hours and then on to Berlin.

Berlin, where we arrived all right the morning of the 19th. This is the grandest city in the world in many respects. It has such noble buildings and works of art; such fine palaces and statues and such a government that it is the admiration of the whole world. A the Hotel Alexandre, where we are staying, we found our good friend, Herman Weber, had preceded us by only a few days. He is taking a tour of his vaterland and sensibly enjoying it and I was very sorry to miss him. We expect to enjoy the rest of the day sight seeing, attend the English speaking church tomorrow and Monday morning I expect to start for home and will say goodbye to the readers of the Journal as their correspondent from abroad and hope soon to see them face to face.

NEW BOX MATERIAL.

A new departure in boxes for the shipping of merchandise is notable and bids fair to save quite a lot of good lumber. The receptacles are made of something resembling tough strawboard and they can be made of considerable size. They are lighter than wood and thus will save something in freight. Some years ago an attempt was made here to manufacture paper barrels but it wasn't a success financially and was given up.

SHORT HOG CROP.

Cholera and other means have caused hogs to become very scarce in various parts of the Military Tract. A buyer at Biggsville had to purchase from twenty different men before he could get enough hogs to complete a lead of 75 head.

How to Make a Delicious Cup of Coffee

You must use good coffee ("America's Cup" is the best), a porcelain or aluminum-lined pot, and water that is bubbling, boiling hot.

Have the coffee ground fine, as only by this means are the cells containing the essence opened. Use a heaping dessert spoonful for each cup desired and add one for the pot (if you prefer to mix egg with coffee, do so before adding water). Pour on the required amount of bubbling, boiling water, which must always be measured and freshly drawn, stir thoroughly, put on stove in hot place, but do not permit to boil. In 10 minutes stir again, pour a little cold water down the spout to wash out any grounds that may be there, and pour a little in the coffee itself. Keep on the stove for another 10 minutes and the coffee is ready to serve—delicious, full of flavor, a drink that you'll enjoy!

Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman of Illinois had spoken against militancy among the suffragists, classing it with anarchy.

PRETTY NOVEMBER WEDDING.

Beautiful Country Home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Drake Is Scene of Pretty Wedding on Wednesday Evening.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Drake, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 19th, 1913, at 8 o'clock occurred the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Ada, to Mr. Charles Earl White of Chapin, Ill. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, sweetly rendered upon the piano by Miss Nelly Callaway, the bride party, led by Rev. R. E. Fox, and the groomsmen, John A. Drake, brother of the bride, followed by the bride-elect and maid of honor, took their places in the northwest corner of the parlor, which had been tastefully decorated in green and white.

Here Rev. R. E. Fox performed the ceremony. The bride was lovely in a white faille silk gown, with shadow lace and pearl trimming. Its chief charm being its dainty simplicity, and a bouquet of bride's roses completed the costume.

The maid of honor, Miss Maude White, sister of the groom, was becomingly gowned in white embroidered voile, with shadowed over lace and messaline.

The color scheme throughout was white, yellow, pink and green, and with chrysanthemums and ferns the rooms were transformed into a bower of beauty.

The dining table was decorated with yellow and white, in the center of which stood the bride's cake. After congratulations the guests were served with delicious refreshments. A beautiful array of gifts of silver, cut glass, china and linen, bear testimony to the loving esteem in which the couple was held by the host of friends.

After the holidays Mr. and Mrs. White will be at home to their many friends on a farm north of Chapin.

Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George T. Drake of Mulvane, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and sons of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ham of Jacksonville, Miss Gratio Bark of Sandwich, Mr. and Mrs. John Goffinet of Concord, Rev. R. E. Fox of Gibson City, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beddingfield of Jacksonville, Miss Ruth Keith of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. O. C. Anderson and daughters, Ruth and Ina, of Pittsfield, Miss Irma Beddingfield of Mt. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. James Beddingfield and daughter, Bess, of Alsea, Ill.

One sweetly solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er; I'm thinking of the today dear As I've thought so oft before.

I'm thinking of the day, dear, It seems not so long ago, When not to wake the baby We spoke in whispers low.

The days flew by like magic, With childhood's joys and tears; But now the days are vanished And we count the time as years.

You'll say goodbye to the home folks, To "parents" and the rest; For to the one and only one, You've gently whispered "yes."

None could know you but to love you, None can name you but to praise, And now to wish you happiness Our glasses we will raise.

And yet before we quaff the cup, We'll offer up this prayer: That He who marks each sparrow's fall Will have the in His care.

AGAINST GAMBLING.

Illinois Masonic lodges have taken up the crusade against gambling. This action was taken at the grand lodge meeting of the order. It is an important step and a worthy one on the part of the Masons, that they have joined the nation-wide movement against this evil.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend."

In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved so thoroughly enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend can be had at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle, and is really one of the greatest blessings ever discovered for expectant mothers.

Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 128 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their free book. Write to day. It is most instructive. There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

Live Well-Low Cost

Don't think of Macaroni and Spaghetti as a luxury, to be served only on special occasions. Make it an "every day" dish, cooked with meat or tomatoes or cheese or any way you think you'd like it.

Flavorful firm tender FOULDS' SPAGHETTI

CLEANLY MADE BY AMERICANS

is as satisfying as meat, more nourishing, more healthful. There's nothing else you can buy for 5c or 10c that will give as much strength for the day's work, or that can be made into so many appetizing dishes.

Be sure to ask for Foulds. You will enjoy its flavor, firm, tender qualities and get real satisfaction from knowing that it is made in a modern, sanitary factory which is kept clean as your own kitchen.

North Dakota Farms On Crop Payments

If you are now renting and want to get onto a farm of your own, you will find an attractive proposition among our 20,000 acres of improved and unimproved North Dakota land. Improved lands $32 to $75 per acre; unimproved, $20 per acre and upwards.

If you will come up to North Dakota with a full and complete farming outfit—and will either bring a good bunch of stock along or buy it here—you get one of our first-class farms in the famous Red River Valley or elsewhere, on the crop payment plan. You will have to make only a small cash payment.

Buy Now While Prices are Low

Are YOU interested? If so, tell us how large a farm you want; number of horses, cows, etc., and what farming equipment you have; and about how much of a payment you can make, and we'll make you a proposition. Care of the Sickroom.
In taking care of an invalid it is a good idea to change the furniture around a little as one becomes so tired of the same furnishings in the same places. Be sure to coat all the sunshine in the room and allow fresh air to pass through often. Keep a patient's room tidy. Change your cus-tome often just to make a little variety. Do not let bottles, half filled glasses, spoons, stand around; they may seem trifles to you who can get about, but are sometimes enormities to one who is nervous. Not of small importance is the tray. Always have a clean cover—paper napkins are nice for the purpose. Use your best china.
Serve hot things hot and cold things
cold, not warm.—New York Sun.

Correctly Classified.
A Washington man who was being shown through one of the ancestral homes in the Shenandoah valley by an aged colored servant stopped before a portrait.

"What a fine painting!" he exclaimed. "Why, that must be an old master!"

"Excuse me, boss," said the retainer,
"but you're mistaken. Dat's de picture of ole Missus Taylor."—Lippincott's.

"Old Nick."
Nickels and "Old Nick" are derived from the name of a Scandinavian demon. Nick, who, according to an old legend, is supposed to haunt the mines in which the metal nickel is found and it was long believed that he gave the hardness to the metal.

None of Them Horrid.
Miss Prim—Allow a horrid man to kiss me—never! Miss Peach—Neither would I; but, think goodness, there isn't one among all my male acquaintances—Boston Transcript.

There is no wrong a man can do but a thwarting of the living right.

FUNERAL NOTICE.
Brief funeral services for Mrs.
Lela S. Taylor will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence in Chapin. Interment will be made in Jordan cemetery.

Absorb Them Without Recessions.
—Heavy Condition of the Metal
Stocks is Most Noticeable.

New York, Nov. 20.—Prices broke to a level lower on stock exchange today. Nothing occurred to arouse the market from its lethargy and trading continued to be of abnormally small proportions.

The day's total was the smallest in months. In spite of the lightness of the offerings the market was unable to absorb them without recessions. Throughout the day quotations dropped, so slowly that the movement was almost imperceptible
but in the end most of the leaders showed declines of a point or so.
Rumored preferred lost five points.

Heavy condition of the metal
stocks was most noticeable.

The copper responded to the easier tendency of the metal markets aboard. Gloomy reports from the steel trade, such as have been coming in for weeks continued to be heard, most attention be paid to statements that foreign manufacturers are becoming more aggressive in their campaign for business in this country.

Heaviness of American stocks in London had little effect on this market and arbitrage trading was so light as to be negligible. Call loans were renewed at 2½ per cent. Cheap money failed to stimulate speculation and was regarded rather as an unfavorable omen, which signified contraction in requirements for commercial purposes.

MOTHER AND CHILD DIES AS RESULT OF LAMP EXPLOSION

Husband Is Badly Burned by Flames
and Hurt By Fall But May Recover.

Clarinda, Iowa, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Bert Kepple and her three year old son Donald are dead and Mr. Kepple is severely injured as the result of a lamp explosion.

Mr. and Mrs. Kepple were carrying a mattress upstairs. Mrs. Kepple was carrying a lamp and the baby was creeping up the stairs behind them. The mattress slipped and knocked the lamp from the mother's hand and the explosion that followed set fire to the clothing of all three. Kepple seized the baby, carried it out of the house and returned for his wife. As he tried to smother the flames in his wife's clothing he was overcome and fell backward down stairs, breaking an arm, a leg and a shoulder. The mother and child were burned so badly that they died within a few minutes. The house was scarcely scorched.

BEST LAXATIVE FOR BOWELS—"CASCARETS"

They Clean Liver, Sweeten Stomach, End Sick Headache, Bad Breath, Indigestion, Constipation.

Get a ten cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills, castor oil or purgative waters?

Stop having a bowel wash day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them—Adv.

ELLIS ISLAND PICTURED AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Unique Program Presented Various Phases of Immigration Question.

A unique, humorous, pathetic and instructive entertainment was given at the Congregational church lecture room last evening when Ellis Island was depicted in miniature. The apartment was remarkably finely decorated, first with large U. S. flags flanked by a large number of the flags of other nations, union jacks and the like while others things lent and additional charm to the place. The affair was admirably prepared and on wonderfully short notice the scheme having first been decided on last Sunday and at once undertaken.

Immigrants from various lands and all sorts of classes applied for admission and the formal inquiry was made of each one. The costumes were striking and showed careful study, wonderful skill and taste and access to a great variety of material. The gauntlet they had to run was the medical officer personified by Allerton Palmer, the matron, Mrs. T. P. Carter; the immigration inspector, George L. Merrill; the officer in charge, Lee Doane. Then they were consigned to rooms labeled respectively "Admitted"; "Temporarily detained"; "Held for special inspection and deportation."

The first number was "America's welcome to her immigrants." This was done by the little folks who performed their part most admirably and pleased every one.

Thomas Jenkinson Sr., then favored the audience with some fine violin solos giving popular American airs much appreciated.

Then came "The gateway to Ellis Island" which was at once laughable and sorrowful as one after another of the fresh arrivals admirably costumed, appeared for the critical examination by the U. S. official. The questions asked were typical of such an occasion and many peals of laughter followed the appearance of the fresh arrivals and their comical answers to the questions propounded them.

Dr. Post followed with a brief talk and read extracts from a recent work on the immigrant subject giving facts and figures actually startling as well as instructive.

A much enjoyed social time followed and nice refreshments added of the occasion.

The capable committee in charge deserving of so much praise, was composed of Mrs. Clark, Mrs. L. S. Doane, Misses Georgia Fairbank, Ruth Bailey and Ione Kuechler.

HOLDS WIFE OF LIFE CONVICT IS WIDOW IN LAW'S EYES.

Brooklyn Judge Decides Woman in Such Case May Wed Again Without Divorce.

Justice Maddox in the supreme court, Brooklyn, ruled that a woman whose husband has been sent to prison for life is just as much a widow in the eyes of the law as if the man were dead. He gave Mrs. Margaret Gargan, a school teacher, permission to be married to William Welsheimer without getting a divorce from her first husband.

Mrs. Gargan had been refused a marriage license on the grounds she already had a legal husband living, although he was serving a life term in Sing Sing.

John C. Gargan shot and killed Mrs. Gargan's father, Martin Hynes, and her brother. He was sent up for life on conviction of the murder in the second degree.

Garland & Co. have just received a new shipment of nifty neckwear.

Anything that a family can use will be very acceptable, dry goods, groceries, canned goods, vegetables, fruits, jellies, pillows and comforters and money always. The hospital is striving to aid needy humanity and should have the cordial cooperation of all, both in city and country adjacent.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy
and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the air of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, craggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Adv.

SKIN ERUPTIONS.

Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.

When the blood becomes thin, poor, devitalized nature cries out through such external evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy you know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most world famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mrs. Helen Wingate, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I was in very poor health, nervous and run-down, and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until my druggist recommended Vinol. It built up my health, restored strength and I feel that I owe my life to Vinol. I cannot praise it too highly."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fall in your case we will return your money. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill. P. S. Our Saxo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.

REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING

C. J. Brand of the Department of Agriculture in the address before the American Association of Colleges a few days ago said: "Our department is advocating more direct buying to reduce the cost of living."

This means that the U. S. government recognizes that one of the main factors in the high cost of living is the paying tribute to one or more middlemen, each of whom add to the actual cost a certain amount of expense for profit. Until the article is finally in the hands of the consumer, it costs him two or three times as much as the original producing cost. Therefore, when buying from us you buy direct.

We are the producers and sell direct. We take the raw materials, cloth linings, etc., which we buy direct from the mills, cut and make your garments, deliver them to you direct without your paying one cent tribute to the middlemen.

You are paying only one expense—one profit.

You are leaving almost all of your money at home.

You are giving work to a dozen families and as many more helpers.

You are getting a garment tailor-made to your measure for the same or less than you pay for others.

You have a garment which we guarantee will look as well after a season's wear as when new.

You have only a trial to make to prove the truth of these assertions and to be convinced of the opportunity that lies at your hand for the taking.

Reed.

The remains of the late Mrs. Albert Reed arrived yesterday morning on the Alton and were at once conveyed to the Congregational church where an audience of sympathetic friends had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of one so greatly esteemed during her life. Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., read suitable passages of scripture, especially a part of John 14, and spoke in fitting terms of the great worth of character and lovely traits of Mrs. Reed who spent so large a part of her life in this city. He told in beautiful language of her early life, her devotion to duty and her friends, of her love for the church and all means of doing good; her love for her dear ones and untiring labors of love for them.

At the close of the services the remains were tenderly borne to their last resting place in Diamond Grove cemetery by Messrs. O. H. Kuehler, J. P. Lippincott, S. W. Carter, A. D. Fairbank, W. W. Carter and S. W. Nichols. Beautiful flowers covered the casket and were in charge of Mrs. Charles H. Smith and Miss Georgia Fairbank.

SUFFRAGETTE IS INVITED TO APPEAR IN POLICE COURT

Miss Lucy Burns Must Answer To Charge of Violating District Ordinance.

Washington, Nov. 20.—A detective called at the national suffrage headquarters here late today and introduced himself to Miss Lucy Burns. They shook hands and the officer politely invited the suffrage leader to appear in police court tomorrow to answer to a charge of violating a district ordinance by chalking the sidewalk in front of the white house to advertise a woman suffrage meeting. Miss Burns smilingly promised to be there. It was all over so quickly and quietly that others in the same room did not know that the event for which Washington had awaited with keen interest for a week had happened. Everybody had heard about the warrant issued at the instance of the corporation counsel and the suffrage leaders were wondering when it would be served.

CAUSE AND TREATMENT OF RABIES DISCUSSED BY ST. LOUIS EXPERT

Dr. Downey L. Harris of St. Louis University Explains Latest Research to Morgan County Medical Association.

"The Cause and Treatment of Rabies" was the subject Thursday evening of Dr. Downey L. Harris of St. Louis who spoke to the members of the Morgan County Medical Association at their annual dinner at the Peacock Inn. In an interesting discussion of hydrophobia and its treatment he said in part:

"The last decade has seen in the United States a veritable epidemic of rabies. Appearing in Massachusetts in 1903 the infection spread westward until cases of hydrophobia and 'mad dog' scares became all too common in all parts of the country. California is just now suffering from a high prevalence of the disease. In England, where people make a general practice of muzzling their dogs rabies are almost unknown. In Canada they are very rare and in Australia, practically unknown.

As we in the United States could not enforce general muzzling or detention ordinances for dogs, our chief salvation must be in a campaign against stray dogs which outnumber greatly the animals with owners and which are much more likely to be carriers of the disease.

"When a person is bitten, the dog suspected of having rabies should be confined for ten days. If symptoms do not develop in this time all fears of hydrophobia may be banished. This should always be done as it makes possible a correct positive diagnosis and in many cases saves endless worry on the part of the patient.

"If rabies are really present resort must be made to the antirabic treatment of Pasteur. This method of treatment has often been put above the means of the poor and disgracefully commercialized by various Pasteur institutes. In the near future, however, owing to improved methods of preparing the requisite 'fixed virus' the Pasteur antirabic treatment by state boards of health and local physicians. This virus is produced from the brain and nerve substance of infected animals. It is frozen by means of liquid air and dried at a temperature of 20 below zero, Centigrade. With virus thus prepared it is possible to immunize a well person against rabies at a cost of ten cents. The virus will keep for two years and is a great improvement over the kind produced by the various methods of late in use."

Dr. Harris concluded his lecture by the citation of a number of typical cases. In the course of his talk he showed some slides he has prepared illustrating the "negri-bodies" or causative organisms of rabies which develop in the blood of the infected person. Dr. Harris is on the faculty of St. Louis university and has charge of the antirabic work in that city. He is an original investigator, the method of preparing virus at low temperatures having been invented by him. The talk by Dr. Harris was followed by a discussion lead by Dr. Norbury in which a number of the 35 physicians present took part.

NEGRO PASSES FORGED CHECKS AND ESCAPES WITH GOOD SUM

All Six of the Checks Are Made Out For Same Sum, $9.85—Are Passed At Small Grocery Stores.

Six worthless checks, each for $9.85, were passed at as many different small grocery stores by a negro whose name was given as "Eddie Jones" in four instances and as "George Johnson" on two of the checks, Wednesday evening. The matter has been called to the attention of the police but as yet the forger has not been apprehended.

All of the checks bore the same number, the same date and were all on the Jacksonville National Bank. Two of the checks were signed "Stout Coal Company" with a rubber stamp and the name of George W. Stout in ink. The others were signed "Hale Coal Company" with the name "U. J. Hale" in the same manner. One was passed at the grocery conducted by George Ferreira on East Lafayette avenue, one at the store of Eddie DeFrate on Independence avenue, one at the Henderson grocery on North Main street, one at R. L. McGowan's grocery on North Main street, one at the store conducted by W. H. Richards on North West street and the other at the store of Mrs. Friend at the corner of North Main and Dunlap streets.

The writing on the checks was quite legible but the endorsement consists of scribbling. The checks were turned over to the police department and the victims described the man as weighing about 150 pounds, about 40 years of age, and having the appearance of a coal hauler, which he professed to be. It is probable that the man is the same who operated in this city about a year ago under the name of "Bennie Jones" as the circumstances surrounding the work of both times are almost identical.
